

Environmental Health and Safety Specialist
(Full time - Permanent Position – Barrie area)

Company Description:

Originally founded in 1957, Munro Concrete Products Ltd. manufacturing facility is a 25,000 square meter state-of-the-art structure. It is the largest single combined concrete gravity pipe and concrete pressure pipe plant of its kind in Canada. Using progressive approach to advancement and technology, the company is recognized as a pioneer in fully robotic concrete pipe production. The plant has been designed with the concept of using automation to facilitate greater production volume with uncompromised quality.

- Requirements and Accountabilities:
 - EHS Program implementation within a Manufacturing environment
 - Minimum of 5 years EHS Regulatory training, education and experience
 - Diploma or Degree in related program
 - CRSP Certification or in process of completion
 - Proficient in presentations and the use of Microsoft Office products
 - In depth knowledge of Workwell, OHSA
 - Implement measures to maintain EHS standards, including internal Auditing
 - Experience with JHSC, WSIB and other regulatory groups
 - Excellent organizational skills and strong ability to network
 - Work in conjunction with the EHS and Leadership Teams
 - Familiarity with Claims Management, NEER programs

The successful candidate will enjoy a competitive compensation package.

Interested candidates please forward resume, in confidence, to the attention of:

whamilton@munroconcrete.com

Or fax: 705-734-2920